Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry.

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup Easily and Cheaply Made at Home.

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat or chest cold that has been hanging on and refuses to yield to treatment, get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex and make it into a pint of cough syrup. The cough will vanish.

Pour the 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of 92. A day's use will usually overcome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation or money promptly refunded. I. W. W. PARADE CHIEF WHO DEFIED POLICE IS HELD BY MAGISTRATE

Brewer Still Talking When Led Away After Case Is Adjourned to Thursday.

George Brewer, leader of the I. W. W. meeting and parade which flamed out at Union Square, New York, last night, was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court to-day. He is twenty-two, a trifle above middle height, gaunt, long-haired and voluble. Every time Magistrate Marsh asked him a question he was off on a stream of words.

"How is it," asked the astounded Judge, "that you, a Russian, only four years in this country, speak such fluent English?"

"Picked it up as I went along," replied Brewer casually. "Now, I maintain that I—"

The gavel cut him off in the midst of his tenth stump speech. Policemen testified that when the 200 I. W. W.'s left their meeting place, Brewer led the way, carrying a banner with the legend "To Hell With Charity!"

In Broadway, near Sixteenth street, Capt. Sexton asked to see their parade permit, and finding they had none, forbade them to go on. Most of the I. W. W.'s quit, but Brewer marched on. Policeman Koehler arrested Brewer, who made a desperate (I. W. W. style) resistance. He tore Koehler's coat to shreds, slapped him, oh, so hard! on the wrist and called him a wicked biling—there!

The charge against Brewer is disorderly conduct, a misdemeanor for which the punishment may be one year in the penitentiary or $500 fine, or both. Magistrate Marsh adjourned the case until Thursday so as to have Brewer's record looked up.

"I will break all the laws in my right for my rights," were the last words Brewer shouted before they led him away.

The Lord Chancellor's Breakfast.

(From the London Chronicle.)
The Lord Chancellor's breakfast to the Judges and K. G.'s, which marks the commencement of the legal year, originated at a time when His Majesty's counsel were few in number and could easily be entertained in a private house. Lord Halsbury was the first Chancellor to break away from the practice of receiving his guests at home in favor of the present more convenient plan of breakfasting them at the House of Lords.
